Gone But Not Forgotten, Virginia Beach By James M. Jordan IV and A. Shepherd Jordan

Memories are truly a gift. They make the past come alive. They remind us of who we are, where we have been and often show us a path to where we are going. The mere mention of Virginia Beach is bound to conjure up special memories for just about anybody who has visited or lived here. We have always been fascinated by the stories of "good ole Virginia Beach" passed on to us by the three generations of our family who lived at "the Beach" before us. The purpose of this book is to continue the legacy handed down to us by family and friends and to throw in a few new ones of our own. As you read through the stories in our book, hopefully it will trigger a special memory or two of your own. At the very least, we hope to bring a smile to your face as you remember these and other special memories of people and places that are Gone...But Not Forgotten.
