You Can't Lose Trading Commodities - By Robert F Wiest

The book is outdated but it is still worth it. There are only two chapters that is worth reading. Everything else, don't even bother reading it. It is a good read if you are into long term investing. There is a chapter on using mini contract if you don't have the require capital to trade. Although, the MidAm is no longer around, there are still mini contract on the grains, coffee, crude, ect. You just have to look for them. My trading platform has them and checked the trading volume. Very low but we are talking about long term not short term like a few minutes! One key that I will say is that you have to wait for the commodities to hit low, depress prices before starting to buy. Also, when prices are high as well, to short them. But I would not suggest shorting them if they are high. They can go higher before breaking
