Editorial Review

From the Back Cover
Evangelism does not need to be frustrating or intimidating. Bill Hybels y Mark Mittelberg believe in the effectiveness of communicating our faith in Christ. This should be shown in our daily lifestyle. In 'Becoming a Contagious Christian', we will find principles that help the believers of Willow Creek reach those people that don't go to church and are ignorant of everything related to God. Based on the Word of God and on the experience of the authors, this book will give you strategies that will allow you to get closer to your friends as an evangelist and will help you: - Discover a natural style for communicating your faith - Develop a contagious Christian character - Build strategic spiritual relationships - Learn to direct conversations toward subjects of faith - Share Biblical truths in everyday language 'Becoming a Contagious Christian' will start a spiritual epidemic with the expectation of changing the way we communicate Jesus' evangelism.
