Are You Lonesome Tonight? (Running Wild) (Volume 2) By Bobby Hutchinson

DOESN'T EVERY WOMAN HAVE A SEXY ALTER EGO? On the telephone, Maxine Bleckner, frazzled single mother, is India Mcbride, voluptuous sex goddess. Left pregnant and penniless by a lying, conniving scoundrel, Maxine Bleckner has found an unorthodox way to support herself and baby Graham. Her uninhibited alter ego, India Mcbride, turns out to be a natural talent at phone sex. It pays the bills—at least until Graham begins to understand words. Harry Watson is also a single, stay-at-home parent to his three-year-old daughter, Sophie. He's a freelance writer, and his latest assignment is to find out what telephone sex workers are really like. But all his preconceived ideas are wrong, wrong, wrong. India Mcbide is nothing like he expected, but very much what he's dreamed of. What's India to do when a gentleman caller seems to want more than a sexy voice on the telephone? Harry isn't like any customer she's encountered. He actually seems interested in her. Is it possible to find the man of her dreams over the telephone? TREAT YOURSELF TO A ROMANTIC COMEDY FILLED WITH LAUGHTER, LOVE, AND TOE-CURLING COMPLICATIONS
