Editorial Review

Review

"Jennifer Blackstream has made me a fan of grown-up fairy tales. This is the fifth or sixth book of hers that I have read where she reintroduces a fairy tale, and I found it delightful." - Pam, Goodreads

"Blackstream has a real talent for taking well know tales and making them her own....The way everything comes to a climax is exciting, touching and very satisfying." - Diane, Goodreads

"This novel is one to get lost in, as all the best books are. I like to see it as this- the relationships between the characters are the addicting cake, and the mystery, drama, and unexpected surprises of the story line is the sweet icing on it." Coral, Goodreads

"A romantic retelling of Beauty and the Beast (with some echoes of a Cinderella's nasty stepsister) which had me hooked from the 1st but more than that the story is about the enduring love of sisters. The author has a wonderful writing style that flows wonderfully and captures your interest from the 1st page." - Linda, Goodreads

"Blackstream's writing is smooth and articulate. Her descriptions are vivid, without being filled with cumbersome and unnecessary prose. I found myself quickly engrossed in her story and quite irritated if anyone dared to interfere with my reading pleasure." - Michelle, Goodreads
